

Please do not permit more media concentration in large corporations. The heart of a democracy is maintaining a system that permits full expression to a range of opinions. Allowing consolidation by a handful of broadcasting corporations is destructive of a free society. We have already gone too far in this direction.